VALUES-BASED ATMOSPHERE

Certificated Online Training Course

I demonstrate my Values-based Atmosphere in every moment, for it emanates from within me.
It is felt by all people, my family, friends, animals, and every living thing. It is evident in my environment.

DISCOVER YOUR OWN VALUES-BASED ATMOSPHERE; IT CHANGES EVERYTHING!

Facilitators and Trainers from Living Values Education will share their knowledge, provide practical examples of Values activities, explain how to apply them, share them with others, and most importantly, demonstrate how this dynamic – a Values-based Atmosphere – can be embedded in your life, the lives of others, and the world around you. You can feel the difference.

WELCOME

with Speaker Chris Drake, President, ALIVE and the Association for Living Values Education International

Chris starting working with LVE in 2004 and having completed six years on the ALIVE Board returned as President in 2016. His involvement with the Living Values Education Approach dates back to its beginnings and has brought him to numerous events and activities.

"LET'S PLAY A GAME: EXPLORING OUR VALUES" – 15 MIN QUIZ

Activity with Roger Miles

There is one question for each of the Values, consider each question carefully, not just the first thought that comes to you but how it might relate to several aspects of your life. Go as deep as you can. Remember, there is no judgment about yourself – only recognition and self awareness.

5

INTRODUCTION TO ASSOCIATION OF LIVING VALUES EDUCATION INTERNATIONAL

with Speaker Belen Maggiolo

Belen first came into Living Values Education as a Venezuelan secondary school teacher in 2004. She was trained by the LVE Associate in Argentina, and then embarked in translating some of the material into Spanish so she could train others to use LVE Approach in her country. In 2005, she became the Focal Point for ALIVE in Venezuela, training other teachers, and training university students through a cooperative program with Universidad Central de Venezuela called 'Children in a World of Peace', so that undergraduate students from different careers could choose to be trained in that program to go and teach values to children in marginal areas around Venezuela. In 2017, She became a new arrival on the International Board - ALIVE in 2023, assuming responsibility for the website activity. Due to her Spanish language background Belen is representing the LVE Americas (South America and Caribbean countries).

AGENDA, CREATIVE EXPRESSION & MIND MAP CREATION

with Speaker Roger Miles

In 2016, Roger was invited to join the ALIVE International board of directors in the role of Deputy President to assist in the restructuring and renewal of the organization. For the past eight years, Roger has held the vision and focus for the LVE Online Programmes and continues to be part of the LVE Approach expansion.

3

LIVING VALUES IN THE PHILIPPINES

with Speaker Brian Bantilan

Brian highlights the introduction and impact of Living Values Education in Philippines promoting values-based education nationwide.

VALUES-BASED ATMOSPHERE

Certificated Training Course Participant Information

This VbA Course is developed from a collective wisdom of many years of offering Living Values Education into the world, it is made possible today by previously unavailable technology in this delivery of Living Values Education training and implementation.

We know you will find this LVE certificated VbA Course not only interesting in content but personally enlightening for your life and the lives of others around you.

COURSE PARTICIPANTS

The VbA Course is currently offered free of charge, and designed to be inclusive and applicable to various individuals and groups. It is planned for use in teacher-training universities and colleges used by teachers in classrooms with young adult high school students, included in conferences, parents at home with children, or adapted for special interest groups such as police, prisons, or hospitals.

COURSE CONTENT

ALIVE Board members and ALIVE Associate and Focal Points internationally have contributed to this VbA Training Course content, providing 6-8 hours of values training materials, values educational awareness, teacher assistance, and values classroom materials offered with delivery techniques. Each values aspect covered is a self-standing assignment with built-in points earning questions that, when answered, demonstrate the participant's comprehension of the content. Personal Values Self-Assessment and Mind-Mapping training are also included to create self-reflective consideration. These all serve as evaluations toward participant LVE international certification.

REQUIRED TO COMPLETE FOR CERTIFICATION

- Registered Participants can access the Course with their Access key – log in anytime from midnight PST (Pacific Standard Time) 14th April and thereafter anytime in the 21 days before the Course closes 5th May 2026.
- Participants will be eligible for Living Values Education International Certification subject to having achieved their required points and completed by 5th May.
- In the event that insufficient points have been gained participants may elect to repeat by registering for next scheduled Course at no cost.
